REAL ESTATE STRATEGIES CORPORATION
RELOCATES TO INCREASE BUSINESS

(REALSTRAT RELOCATES)

KENILWORTH, N.J.: (November 29, 2005)---Andrew B. Zezas, SIOR, President of Real Estate Strategies Corporation announced today that the company has expanded its facilities and has relocated to the top floor of its building at 1700 Galloping Hill Road in Kenilworth, New Jersey. The move was designed to support the increased business and expansion needs of the corporate real estate services company.

Mr. Zezas stated, "We've experienced dramatic growth since we founded Real Estate Strategies Corporation a little more than three years ago, and we needed to accommodate the additional service requirements of our growing list of corporate clients." Matthew D. Kirby, Vice President added, "Given the excitement surrounding our firm and the continual flow of business we've been receiving, our expansion and relocation will serve to enhance the business driven real estate solutions we provide to our existing and future clientele."

Real Estate Strategies Corporation has achieved noteworthy success since the company's inception in 2002. The company has represented the real estate interests of New Jersey and internationally based companies, such as Organon, Symrise, Princeton Softech, Odyssey Pharma, Topcon, and ThinkCentric, to name a few. Since Real Estate Strategies Corporation began, both the company and its executives have received multiple awards, including The William Dorsey Award for Client Service Excellence and the A-Team Broker of the Year Award. Mr. Zezas was also recently named a finalist in the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year New Jersey 2005 competition and has been the recipient of numerous awards throughout his 21 year career in corporate real estate, including Broker of the Year, Creative Deal of the Year, and more.

Real Estate Strategies Corporation helps companies achieve greater operational and financial performance by creating and executing Business Driven Real Estate Solutions.
